

Lisbon International Sailing Club

Byelaw 2/2015: GUESTS

1. Guests may sail as crew at the invitation of any club member over the age of 18.
2. Invitations to guests shall be for the purposes of sharing the activity with friends or family, or to allow genuine potential members to try the Club's activity before joining.
3. An individual may only sail as a guest up to a maximum of two times in any one calendar year, unless otherwise permitted by the Administrative Board.
4. Guests will not be charged a fee for sailing but will be invited to make a voluntary donation to the club.

Lisbon, 12 June 2015.

The Administrative Board.
